

10 Arkansas Women You Might Not Know About

Fatima Robinson

Rosetta Tharpe

Anita Pointer

Julia Hill

Martha Mitchell

Arkansas Red Heads

Katherine Breckinridge

Barbara Hendricks

Dorothy Hoover

Dale Evans

Find the pictures of Arkansas women on display, use a smartphone to scan the QR code, and learn more about these amazing women.

- Choreographed the 2022 Super Bowl Half Time Show featuring Snoop Dogg, Dr. Dre, and Eminem.
- Played games in every state as well as Canada, Mexico, and the Philippines and were "Ambassadors of Goodwill for Arkansas."
- One of the first six African American women hired as a P-1 mathematician or "human computer" for NASA.
- Attended the wedding and coronation of Nicholas II of Russia.
- Became a movie and TV star along with her husband Roy Rogers and wrote the iconic song "Happy Trails."
- Graduated from the Juilliard School in 1973 with a degree in voice.
- Lived in a redwood tree in northern California for 738 days to protest clear-cutting by a logging company.
- Considered one of gospel's first superstars and influenced Bob Dylan, Little Richard, Elvis Presley, and Johnny Cash.
- Won three Grammys and three American Music Awards along with her sisters.
- Outspoken wife of President Nixon's attorney general who kept the press informed of corruption within the Nixon White House.

Scan the QR Code (using the camera on your smartphone) on each panel to jump to the EOA entry for more information about these Arkansas women.

THE
ENCYCLOPEDIA
OF ARKANSAS

AN EOA SCAVENGER HUNT

Fatima Robinson

Little Rock (Pulaski County)

All American Red Heads

Caraway (Craighead County)

Dorothy Hoover

Hope (Hempstead County)

Katherine Breckinridge

Pine Bluff (Jefferson County)

Dale Evans

Osceola (Mississippi County)

Barbara Hendricks

Stephens (Ouachita County)

Julia Butterfly Hill

Jonesboro (Craighead County)

Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Cotton Plant (Woodruff County)

Sister Rosetta Tharpe

Martha Mitchell

Pine Bluff (Jefferson County)

Anita Pointer

Prescott (Nevada County)

