

10 Facts About PRIDE in Arkansas

Lucie's Place

George Takei

Octave Thanet

E. Lynn Harris

Peter McGehee

Danielle Berry

Garrard Conley

V. L. Cox

Beth Ditto

Robert Loyd

Find the pictures on display, use a smartphone to scan the QR code, and learn more about PRIDE in Arkansas.

- This Little Rock nonprofit organization provides support for LGBTQ+ young adults experiencing homelessness in central Arkansas, helping with housing, resources, case management, and job skills training.
- An author, activist, and internet celebrity, this outspoken proponent of gay rights received the Equality Award from the Human Rights Campaign in 2007 and the American Humanist Association's LGBT Humanist Award in 2012.
- A leading writer of local color stories and journalistic essays, this author used a pseudonym because it was gender-neutral.
- This author's nine novels featuring African American men in gay and bisexual relationships have sold more than three million copies.
- This author's first novel, Boys Like Us (1991), received praise from the New York Times, but he had little time to enjoy the success that followed its publication, as he died from AIDS-related complications in September 1991.
- This computer game designer created a game in 1983 that was ranked third on Computer Gaming Worlds 1996 list of the best games of all time.
- This author's memoir, which was adapted into a movie in 2018, recounts his experiences at the Memphis, Tennessee, "ex-gay" therapy program Love in Action.
- This painter and mixed media artist's work has achieved national acclaim for confronting institutional racism and homophobia.
- This White County native is the singer and songwriter for Gossip as well as a model and fashion designer who promotes positive body image and who is an outspoken supporter of LGBTQ+ rights.
- This activist and his husband organized the first Conway Pride Parade in 2004.

Scan the QR Code (using the camera on your smartphone) on each panel to jump to the EOA entry for more information about PRIDE in Arkansas.

C
A
L
S

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA
OF ARKANSAS

AN EOA SCAVENGER HUNT

Lucie's Place

George Takei

Octave Thanet

E. Lynn Harris

Peter McGehee

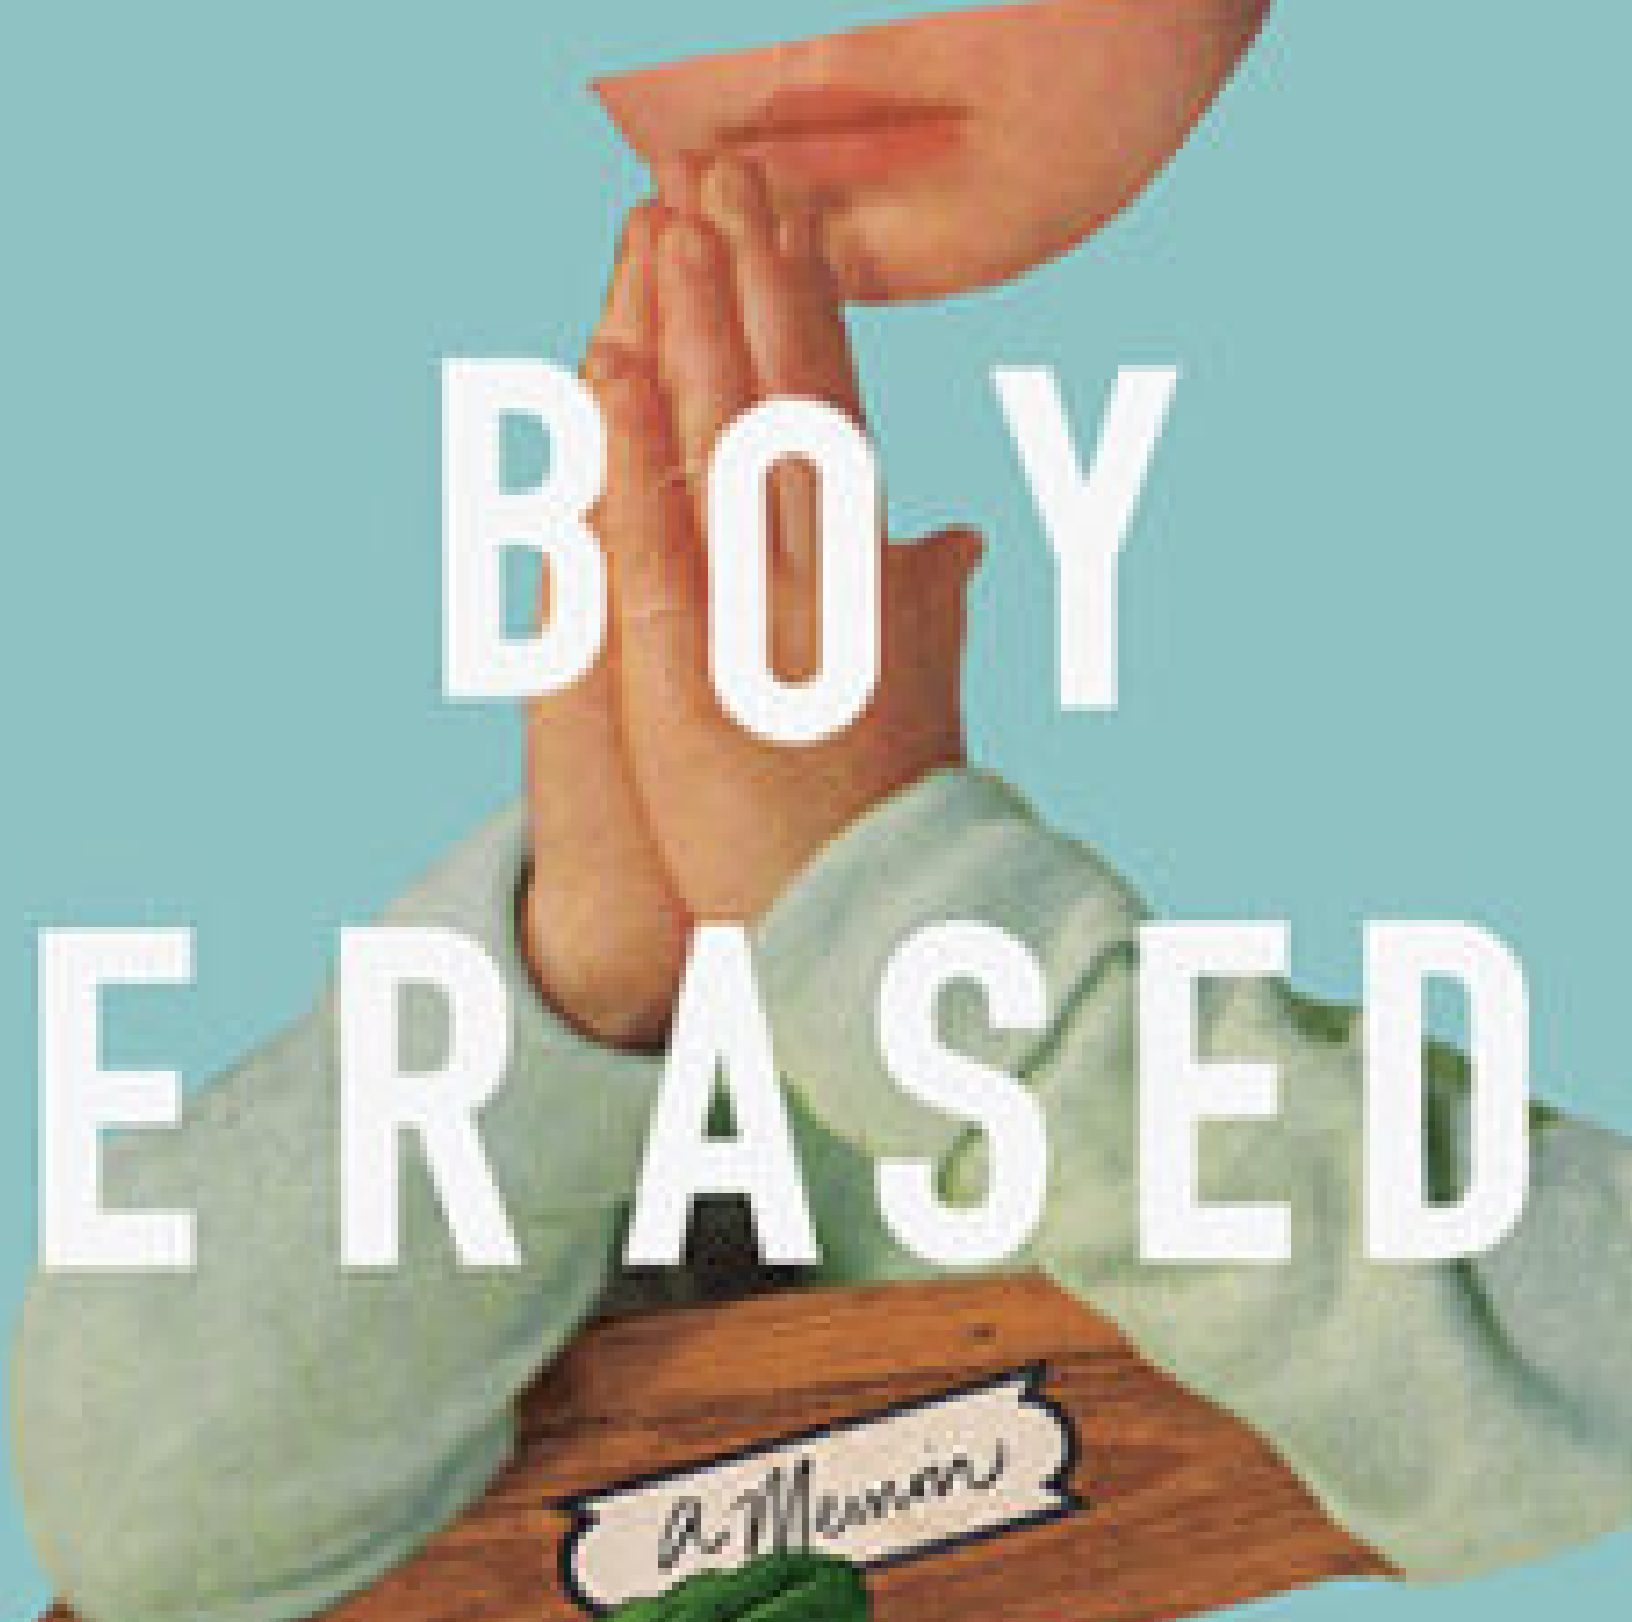

M. U. L. E.

A game in which up to four players attempt to settle a distant planet with the so-called help of a mule-like machine they all learn to hate.

Danielle Berry

Garrard Conley

V. L. Cox

BETH DITTO

A MEMOIR

Beth Ditto

GO AHEAD
FAMILY FRIENDS

Robert Loyd

