

C A L
S

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARKANSAS

How Black Arkansans Have Changed the World

Night

LOUISE C. WALLACE

FLORENCE B. PRICE

Andante

p cresc.

Night comes, a Map cresc.

don-na clad in scent ed blue.

mf mf

3

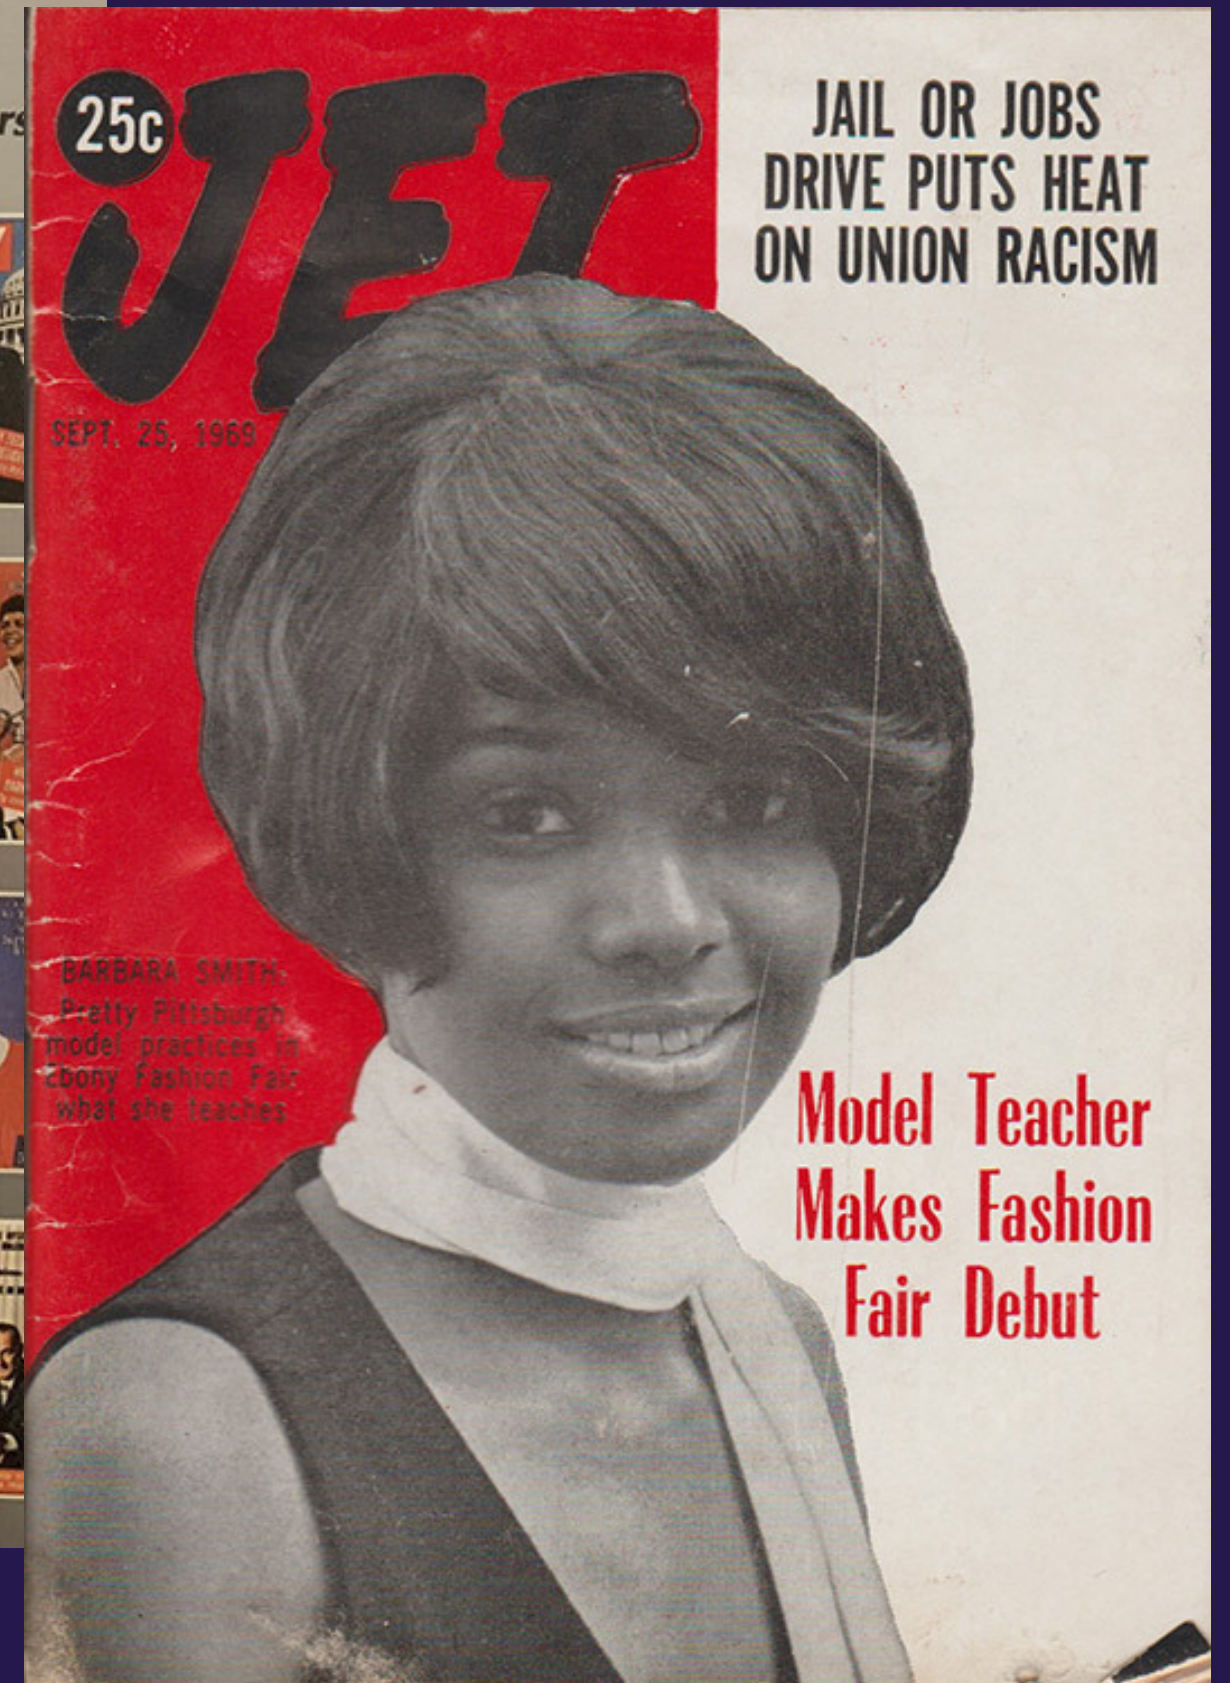

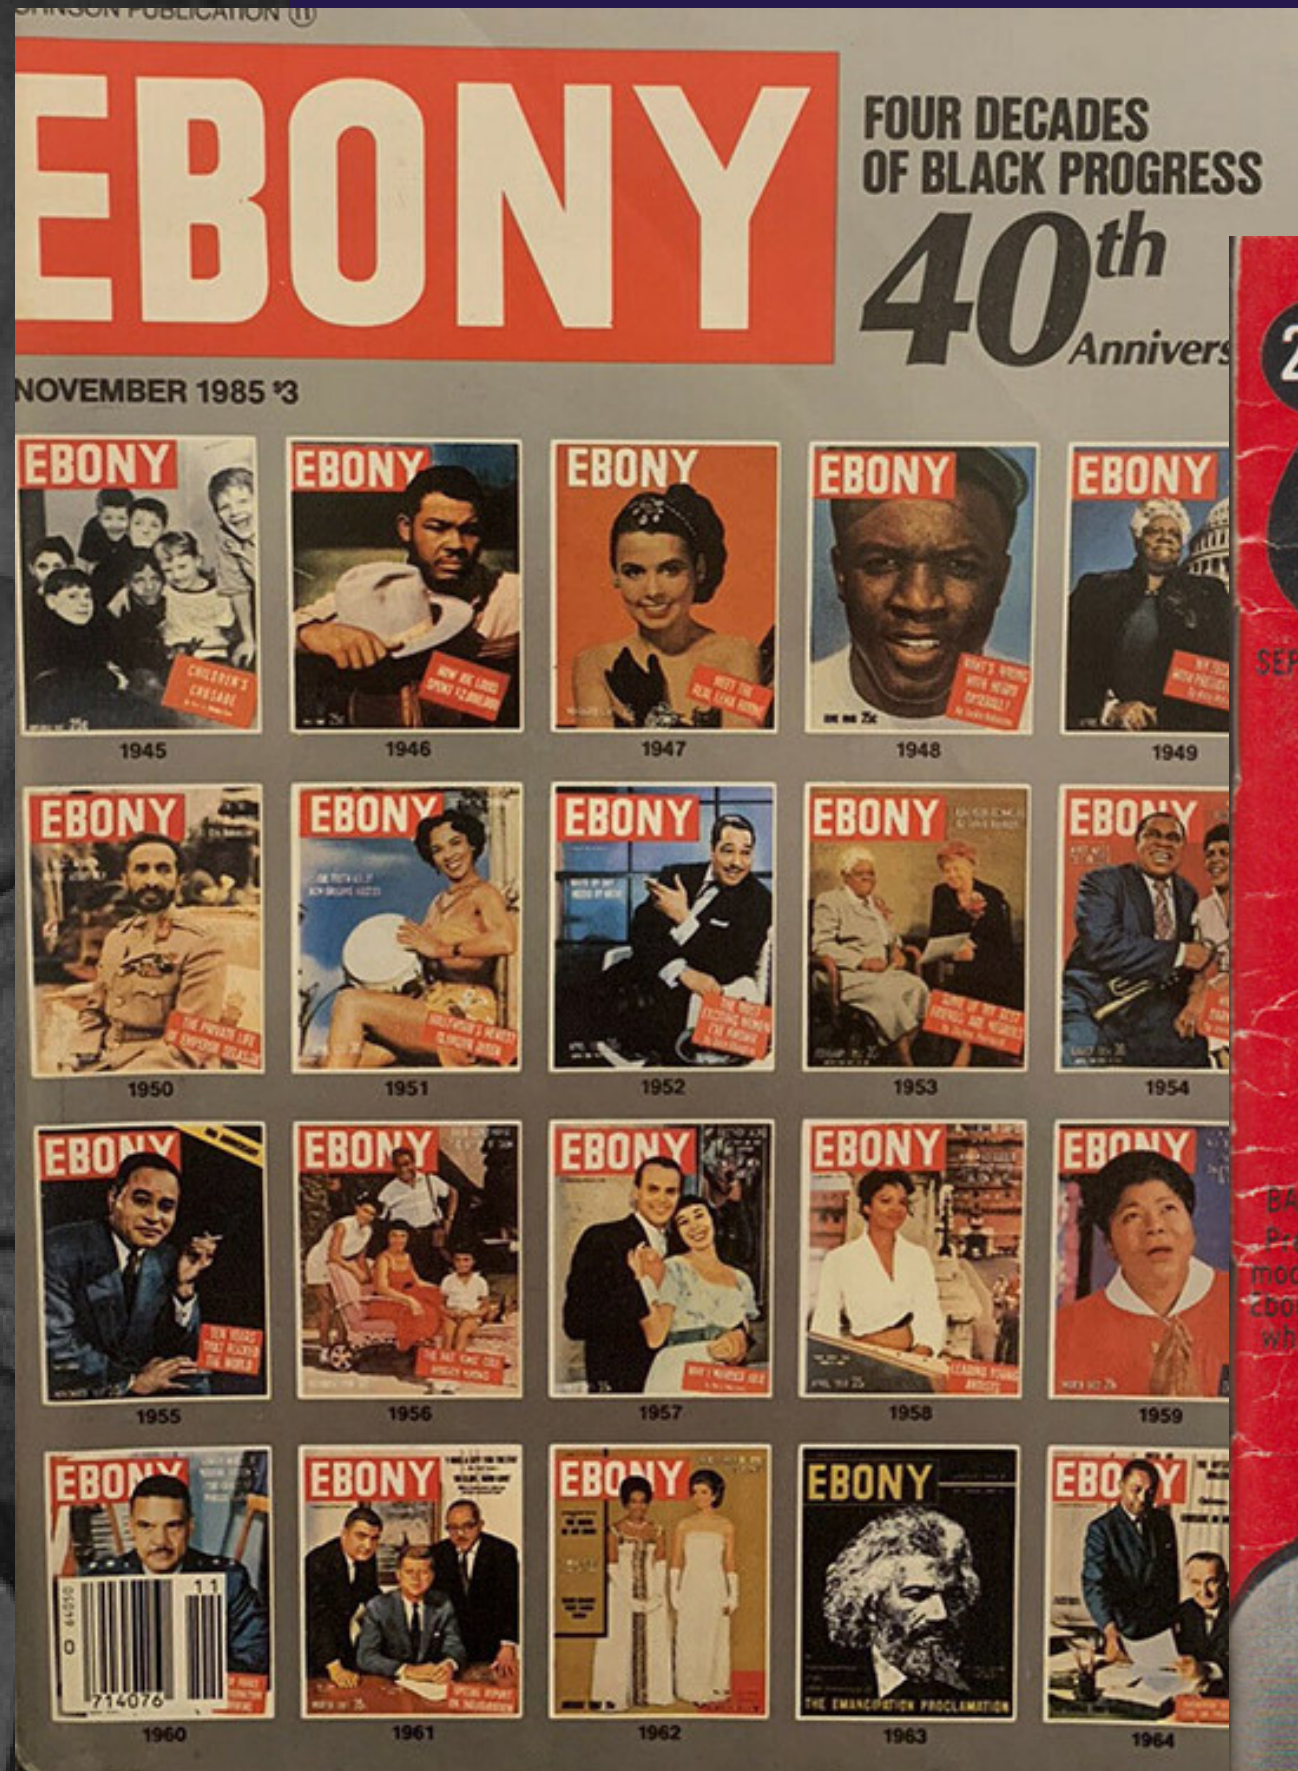

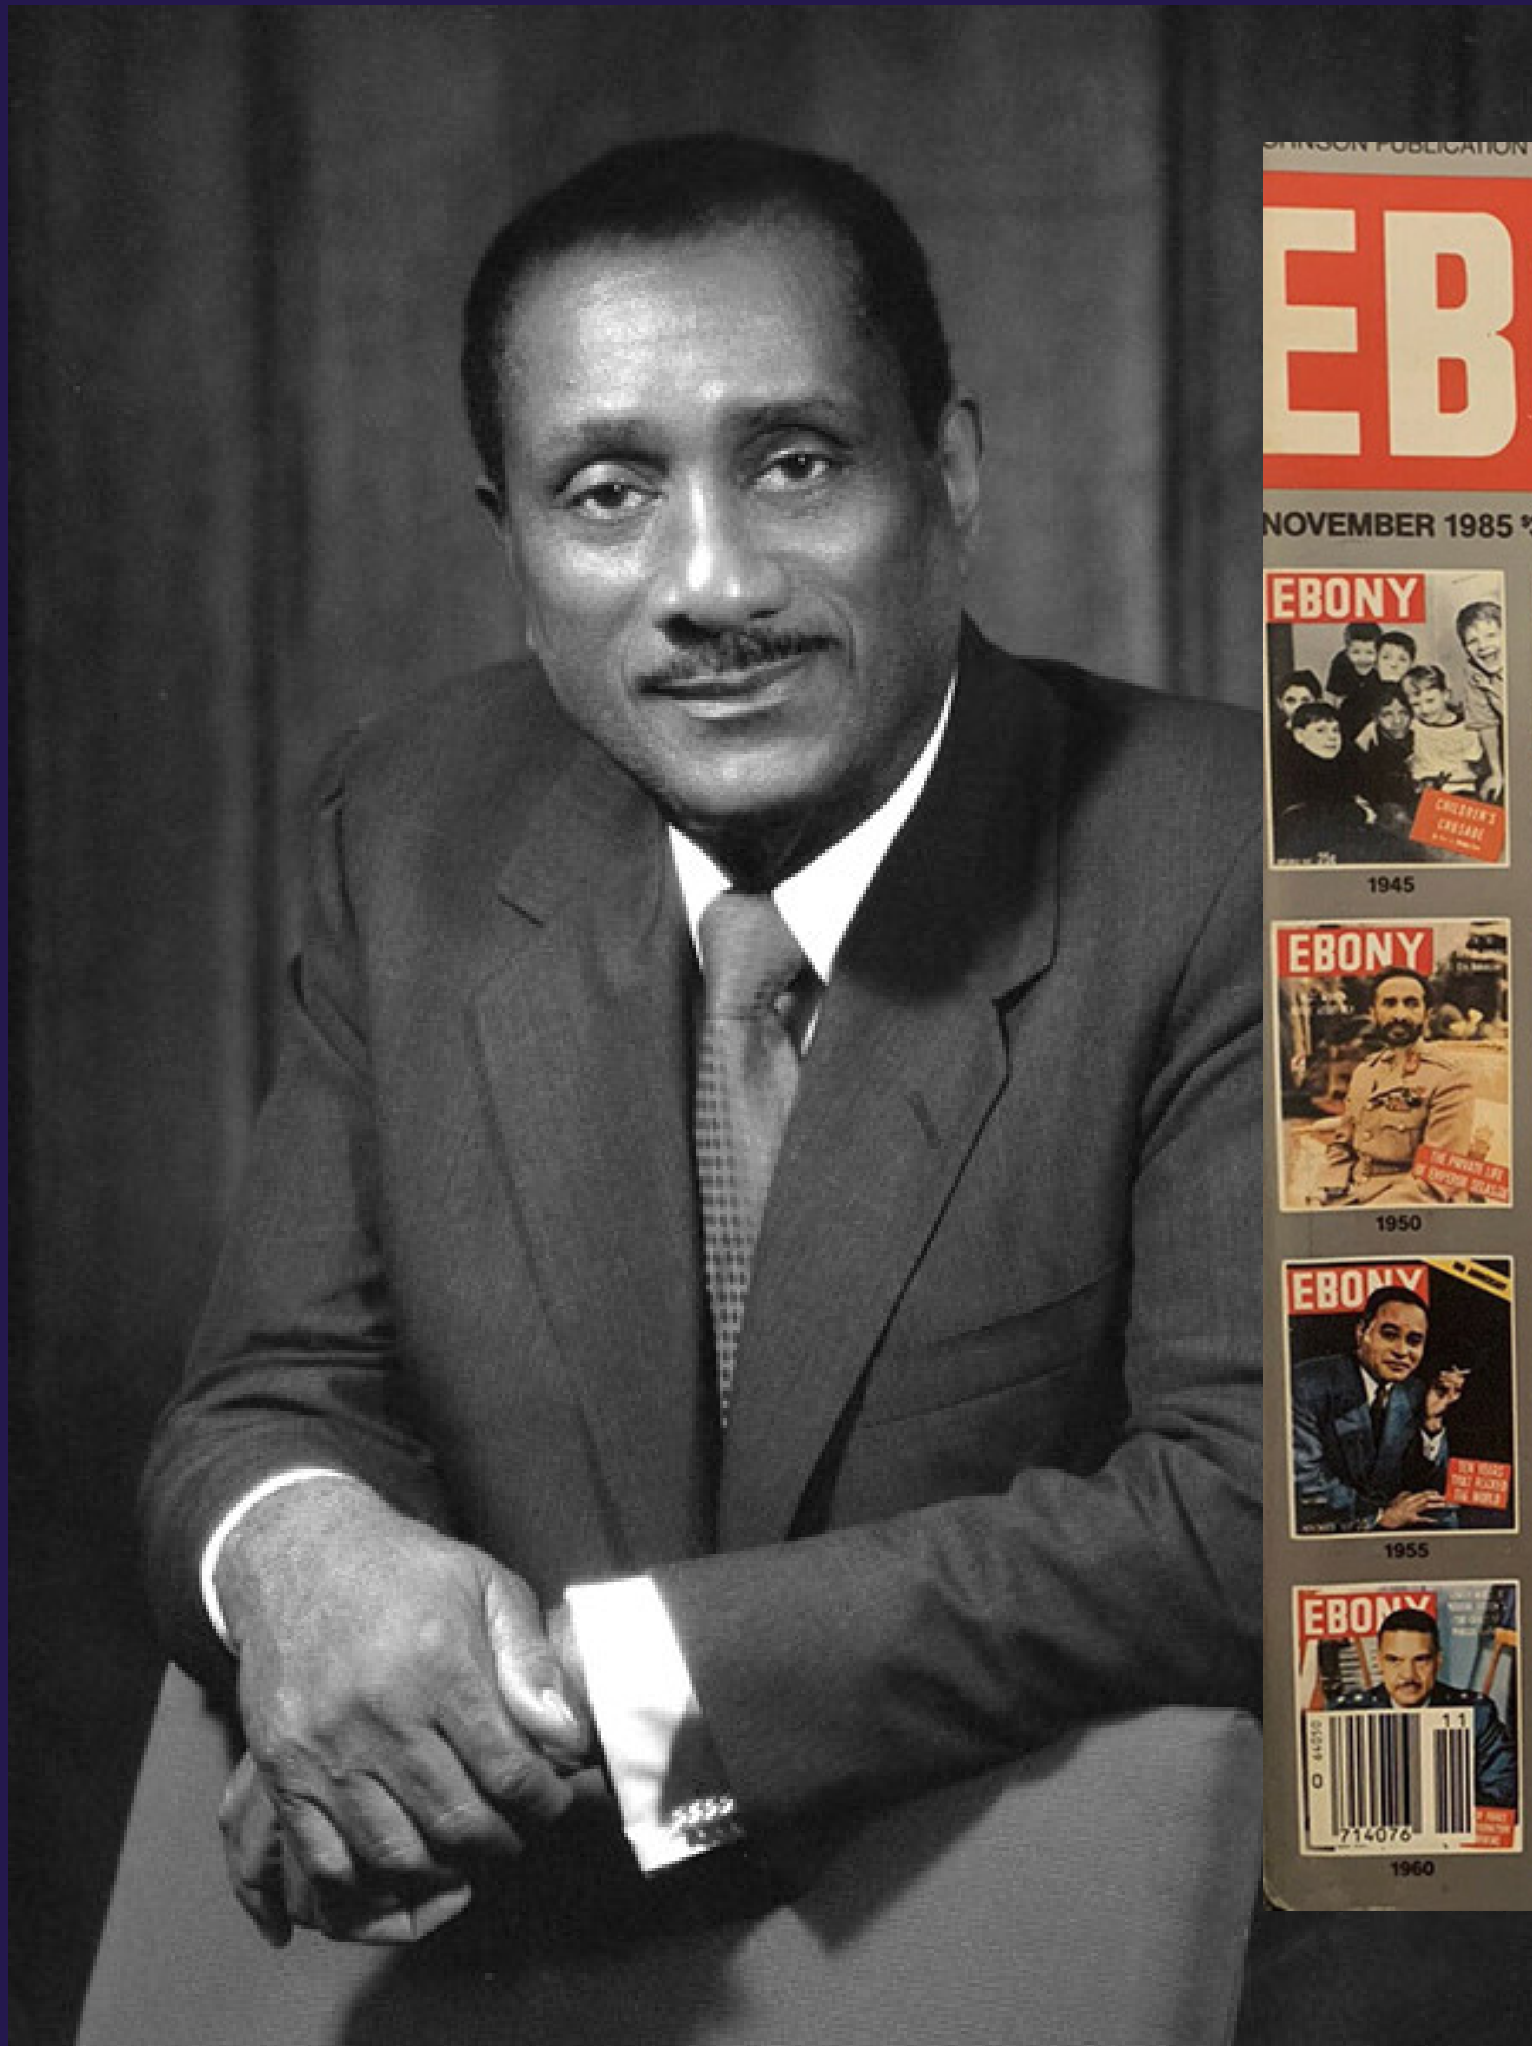

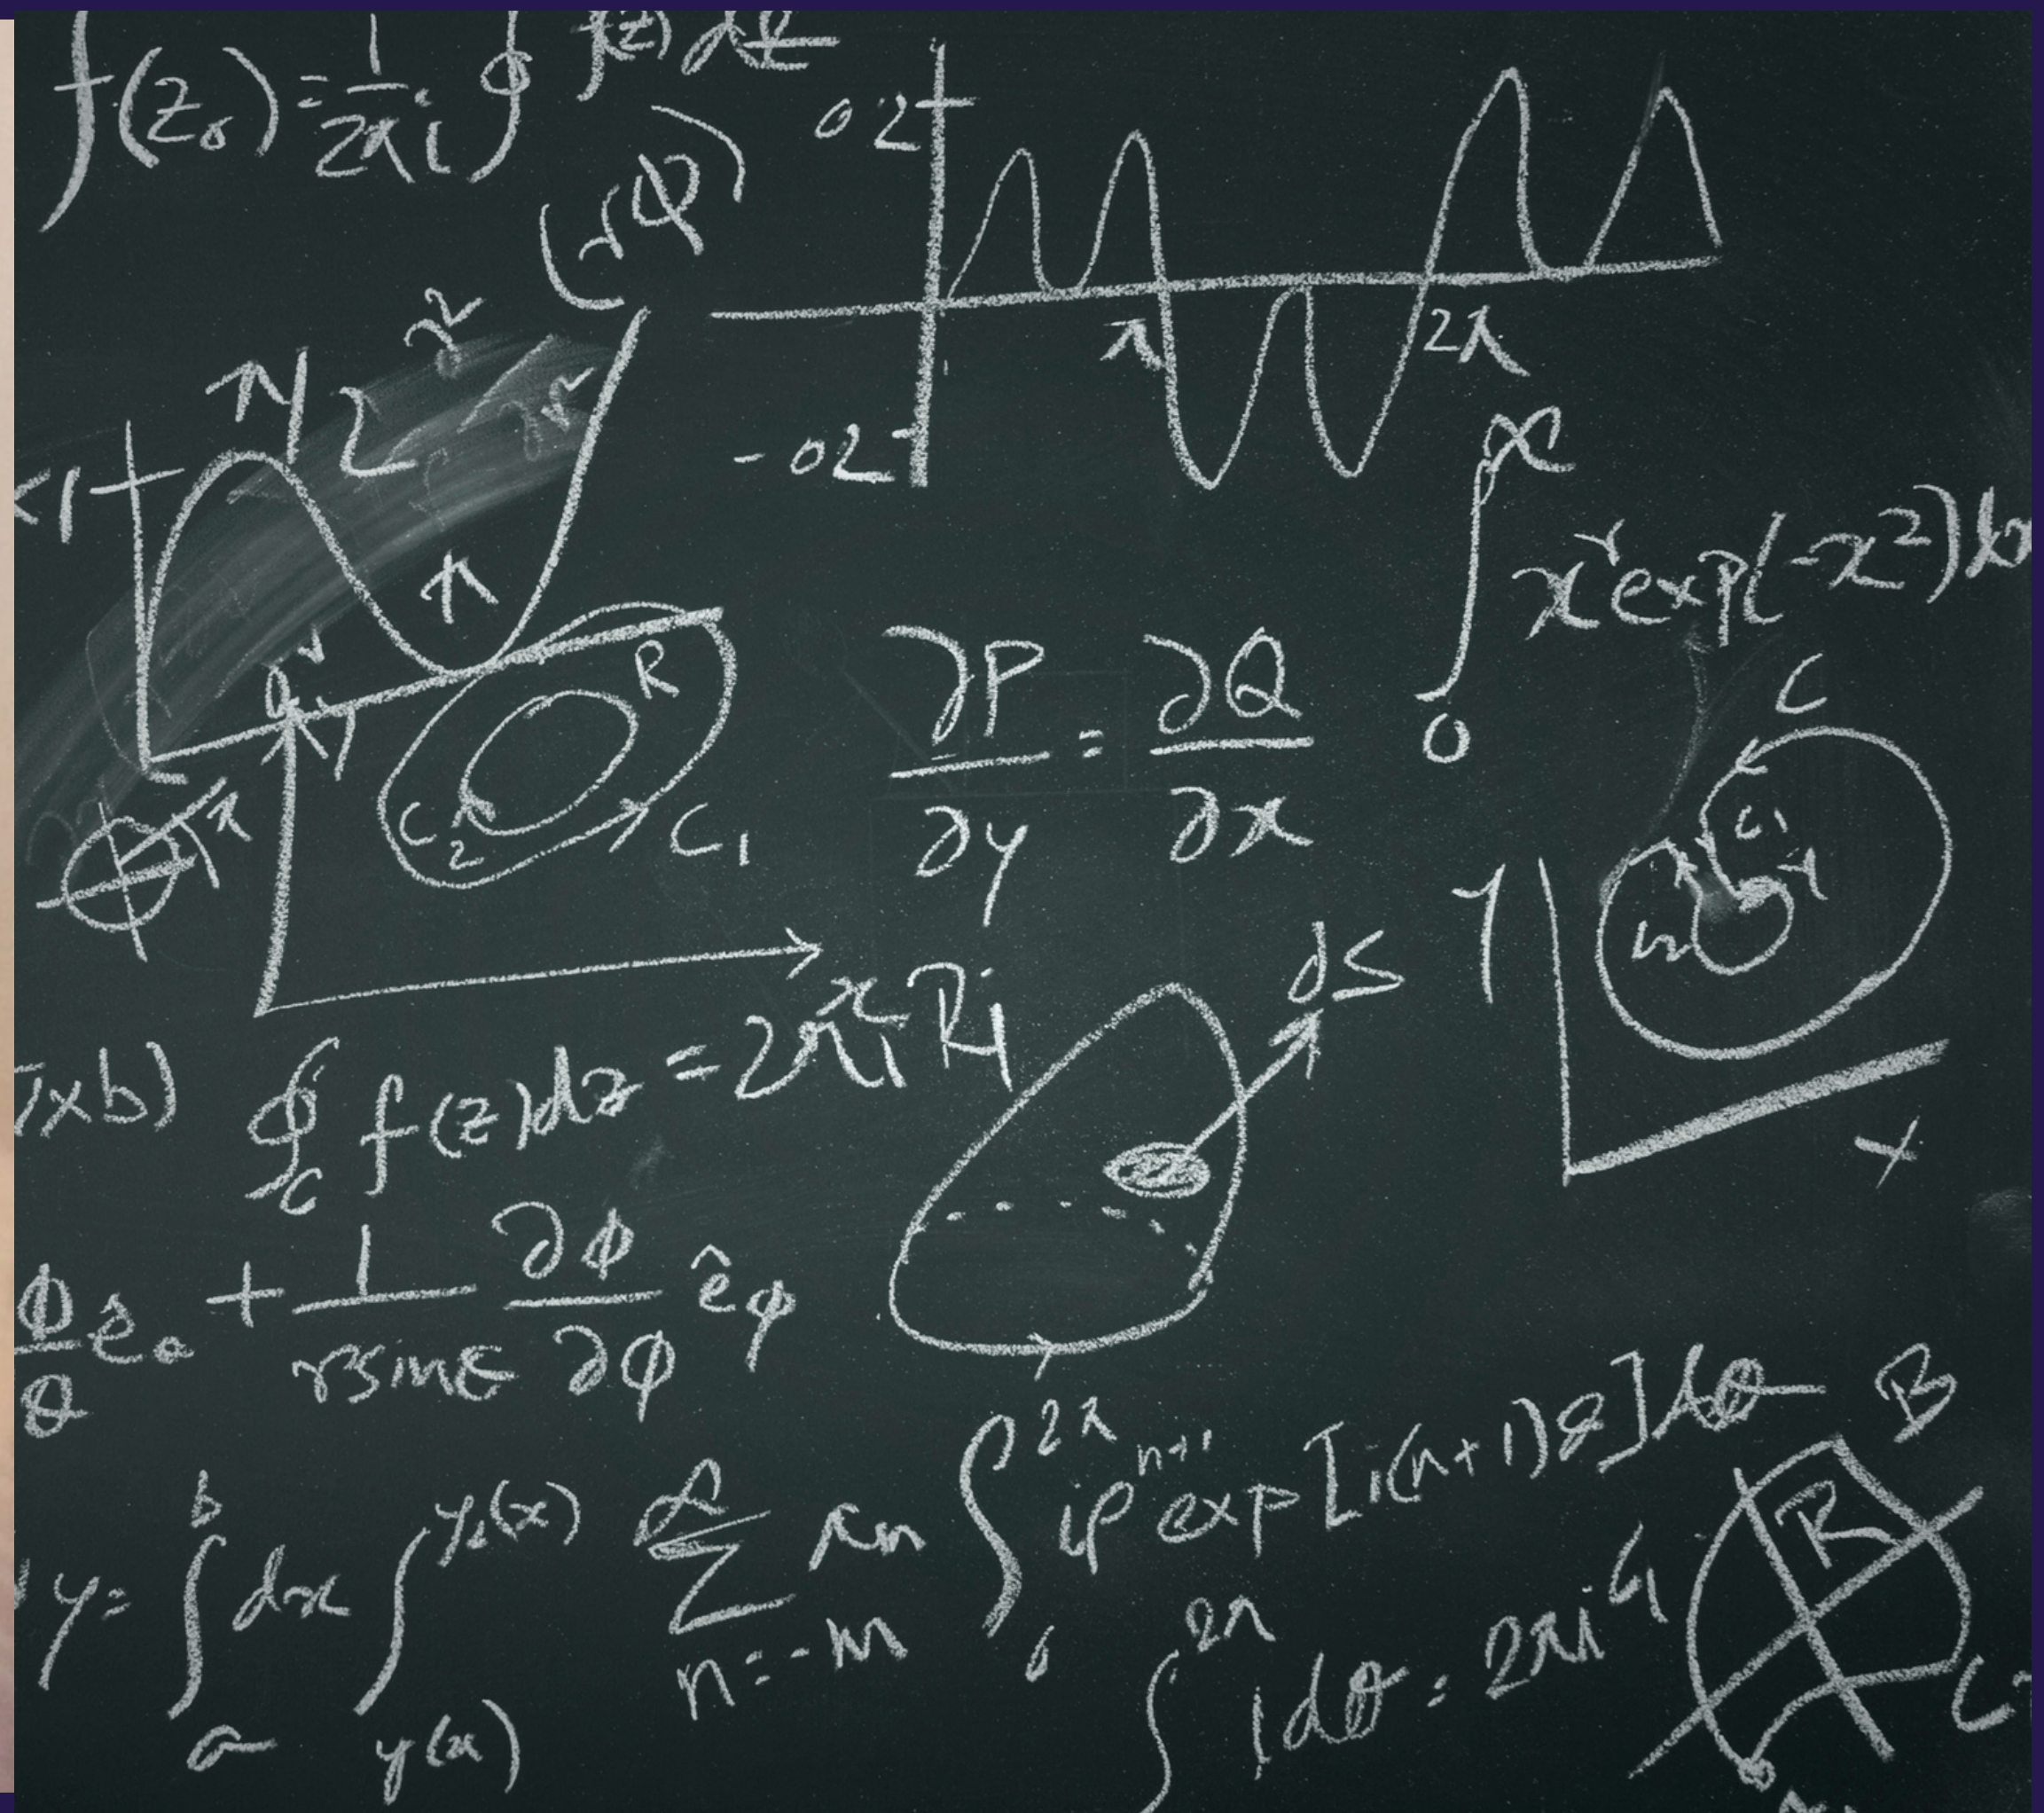

Maya Angelou
*I Know Why
the Caged Bird Sings*

50th Anniversary
Book Club
Kit

#CagedBird50

WELCOME TO THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARKANSAS

Everything from  Kate Phillips to  Wishbone Cutter

Search for...

THIS DAY IN ARKANSAS HISTORY

October 6, 2006

The Southern Tenant Farmers Museum in Tyronza (Poinsett County) opened. The museum is owned and operated as an educational program of Arkansas State University (ASU) in Jonesboro (Craighead County) and focuses on the tenant farming system of agriculture in the South and the farm labor movement that arose in response to this system.

Learn more about Southern Tenant Farmers Museum >

BROWSE THE ENCYCLOPEDIA

Entries

BY CATEGORY >

A - Z >

Media

BY CATEGORY >

A - Z >

PHOTO OF THE DAY

Consolidated White River Academy ▾

English