

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ARKANSAS HISTORY & CULTURE

Internship Application

The Encyclopedia of Arkansas (EOA) is a comprehensive, Web-based resource on all aspects of Arkansas's history and culture. The EOA offers one internship per semester to upper-level undergraduate students and to graduate students. Interns will assist the staff with researching and vetting encyclopedia content. Duties may include writing, editing, digitizing, and/or office work, in addition to historical research. Interns are expected to work eight hours per week, primarily at the EOA's Little Rock office. The names of all interns will be permanently listed on the Encyclopedia of Arkansas website.
